

Cultivating growing relationship with Jesus Christ

New Bible Reading Challenge

We need to learn more of the word of God than just what we get in Sunday sermons. So, if you don't have a weekly Bible reading plan, how about reading Micah & Isaiah over the next few months. Here are some questions to ask as you read these books. What was God disappointed with, specific behaviors? What does the Lord want from people? What is your response to this? To the problems with the people, what was the temporal solution, and what is the ultimate solution given in the book? Additionally, notice how God was at work through the events of time, even though people may not have recognized it.

On YouTube, there are animated videos done by BibleProject that can help you understand each book as a whole. It will probably be helpful to watch them before starting the book, but you may also want to come back to parts of the videos as you read day after day. On YouTube, search Book of Micah Summary, and Book of Isaiah Summary (there are 2 parts).

If you read 5 days a week, it will take you about three and a half months. You can target reading 6 or 7 days but saying 5 days gives some room for missing. We usually like to say plan on studying for 5 minutes, because saying 5 minutes keeps you from thinking you don't have time for it. If you would like a tool to help you with deciding what portion to read each day, with interpreting, and with application, we have bookmarks which contain help on those things, as well as help with prayer. Pick one up in the loaner-Bible stand at the back of the Worship Center. If you don't have another way you teach your kids the Bible, each day you read, share with your kids the Bible passage (in an age-appropriate way) and have a discussion about what you learned.

Hope Women's Center Monthly Donations

The Hope Women's Center (1640 E. McDowell Rd. Phoenix, AZ 85006) is a faith based, trauma informed, non-profit organization that provides vulnerable women and teen girls with a safe place where they can get assistance, encouragement, support, and the necessary tools to make positive changes for their future, and most importantly, introduces them to Jesus. Each month, our church will focus on collecting something specific for the center. For July, we are collecting full-size bottles of shampoo, conditioner and body wash, and Ziplock sandwich bags. Thank you for considering and adding a few of these items to your shopping list! Please bring your donated items on Sundays and place them in the bin located on the table in the patio area. Also, the center is seeking volunteers to teach classes, assist in the kid's room, help sort donations and work in the boutique. For more details on serving opportunities at Hope Women's Center, contact Loraine Ingersoll or email Info@StoneCreekBibleChurch.org.

Quilting Saturday

Join us on Saturday, August 10 from 9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. in the Worship Center to work on quilts for Hope & A Future and Thrive, both are 501c3 nonprofit charities. 60 quilt tops have been donated that need batting, a quilt back and then pieced together. Also, due to fabric donations, we will be making baby quilts. If you know how to sew, tie yarn, are willing to cut squares or can donate needed items, we could use your help.

The following items are needed:

- ♦ Cotton Twin Flat Sheets (for the back of the quilts - new or gently used)
- ♦ Batting

Please bring your donated items to church and place them in the designated laundry basket in the patio area on Sunday mornings or see Jan Logan. Come help as your schedule allows. If you have any of the following items, please bring them: sewing machine or scissors. There will be others from the Phoenix area assisting us with this serving opportunity. Beverages and snacks will be provided.
