Jesus Cares

Matthew 20:29-34

Christian Sanich, 11/9/2014

Text sermon questions, during the sermon, to (602) 824-8030

Two desperate blind men cry out to Jesus.

They believed the Christ could solve their problems.

The crowd rebukes them, but they cry out with greater intensity.

Persistence

Side note, about the way we talk to God

Jesus stopped and showed care for the two men in need.

God has capacity for paying attention to the needs of all.

Jesus cares for the least.

“And feeling deep compassion, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately they regained sight.”

His power

His heart

The two men followed Jesus; they became His disciples.

The Lord cares. He has the power to deal. Call out to Him.

Application questions for 11-9-2014 sermon
Matthew 20:29-34

Do you take all your issues to Jesus throughout the day and week?

When you have a significant issue are you persistent in taking it to God?

If not, why is that? Do you have some thought that you can't take those things to Him, or that He doesn't care, or that He can't do anything about it?

(We'll explore this more specifically in the coming questions)

Do you believe that Jesus cares about your issues and needs?

And if not, why don't you believe that?

Do you believe that Jesus is capable of dealing with your issues?

And if not, why don't you believe that?

If you believe that Jesus cares about your issues, and you believe that He is capable of dealing with them, then why do you think it is that you don't take more of your issues to Him?

On this subject, what do you want to change about the way you think or behave?

What kind of an picture did you get of Jesus from this sermon? And is that the same way you pictured Him before?
