Don't Miss the Ultimate Rest

Hebrews 4:1-11

Christian Sanich, 2/28/2016

Text sermon questions, during the sermon, to (602) 824-8030

4:1 Let us fear, if you seem to have failed to reach His rest

4:2-3a We must unite hearing the good news with believing it

We who trust Jesus are entering into God's heavenly rest.

4:3-5 God's ultimate rest for people still remains. Don't miss it.

(ref.: Psalm 95:7-11)

God rested after creation to establish a principle.

(ref.: Genesis 2:1-3)

4:6-8 Since it is remaining for some to enter into God's ultimate rest,
"Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts."

4:9 The ultimate rest still remains for the people of God

Become one of the God's people by grabbing hold of Jesus.

4:10 Jesus has lead the way into heaven for us

(ref.: Revelation 14:13)

4:11 Therefore let us strive to enter into that ultimate rest

Finish your journey toward God.

Don't stop at just hearing the good news. Trust Jesus.

He alone can forgive your sins,
resurrect you from the dead,
and give you entrance into heaven.

Challenge for this week: Get in your Bible and make heaven the focus of your reading. Use the concordance or Internet.

Application questions for 2/28/2016 sermon

Hebrews 4:1-11

Don't Miss the Ultimate Rest

Do you have any doubt that Jesus is the only Savior - the only one who can provide forgiveness for your sins and get you into heaven?

Have you trusted Jesus for that?

(Probably have everyone answer this series of questions.)

Do you think about heaven very often?

If so, how is it helpful to you?

If not, how do you think it might be helpful to you?

What is the thing you know about heaven that you relish the most?

Do you think there is a lot more you could learn about heaven in the Bible?

Are you going to spend time studying about heaven in the Bible this week, or have you already?

(If you weren't together last week, you may want to go back and answer some of those questions, since this set of questions was pretty short.)
