Pray, Extend Love, Be Hospitable

1 Peter 4:7-9 (11)

Christian Sanich, 1/28/2018

Text sermon questions, during the sermon, to (602) 824-8030

4:7 You should be sober and sober for the purpose of prayer.

We need to recognize the spiritual aspect to everything.

We need to pray for God's intervention in our lives and the world around us.

4:8 Above all, keep on extending love toward each other,

What would it look like for you to take another step toward loving people in the church the way you love family and friends?

because love covers a multitude of sins.

Our offenses against one another won't destroy our relationships, if we have been loving each other over time.

4:9 Be hospitable to one another, without complaint.

Love someone like a friend, who is not really a friend.

To the glory of God (4:11)

What is God putting on your heart to do, with prayer, with loving your church family, with showing hospitality to Christians?
