Keep in mind:

“Brother” is male or female.

Doing this process for a brother is caring, and it’s commanded.

We are to keep going until there is resolution.

In each step, we are to show the brother his sin.

What if I feel unworthy or hypocritical doing this?

Jesus knows you sin, and calls you to this anyway.

Deal with your own sin rightly. (ref.: Matt. 7:1-6)

The goal of the first three steps is winning your brother.

If your brother does not listen to you in Step 1, you must do Step 2.

Add witnesses - take with you one or two others.

The others may tell the go-er he is wrong.

The witnesses are to speak with one voice.

If they agree it’s sin, they join together to show the brother.

If he refuses to listen to the witnesses in Step 2, you must do Step 3.

Tell it to the church

I would suggest, do it prayerfully. Agree what to do.

At this point, the church is still engaged in showing the brother his sin and trying to win him.

What is your response to this? Discuss it with someone today.
